INDONESIAN JOURNAL of LAW AND SOCIETY

VOLUME 2 | ISSUE 1 | MARCH 2021

This journal is published by
Faculty of Law, University of Jember
INDONESIA

The Indonesian Journal of Law and Society is the faculty-edited flagship journal of the Faculty of Law, University of Jember, Indonesia. It is a refereed journal, with a double-blind peer review by academics and experts in the field before the publication. The journal covers both domestic and international legal developments, embraced by local and international scholars with an acute interest in law and society.

This journal is published twice a year, providing up-to-date academic analysis of current law and society issues in Indonesia and across the globe. This journal features international scholarship on the intersection of law and society, which includes law relating to political science, criminology, history, human rights, gender studies, and political economy.

This journal provides immediate open access to its content on the principle that making research freely available to the public supports a greater global exchange of knowledge. This journal is an open-access journal which means that all content is freely available without charge to users or institutions. Users are allowed to read, download, copy, distribute, print, search, or link to full-text articles in this Journal without asking prior permission from the publisher or author(s).

Faculty of Law, University of Jember, Indonesia

Established in 1964, it is one of the premier law schools in Indonesia. Its purpose is to be the leading law school in the Southeast Asian region in teaching and research. To this end, the Faculty of Law extends international partnerships and exchange programs to bring together the best expertise with many other law schools abroad and has made agreements with law schools in Thailand, Germany, Vietnam, and Malaysia. The Faculty of Law pursues its objectives through publication and cooperation with other institutions and other means. Visit: fh.unej.ac.id.
