A Note from the Editor

Dear Readers,

The Journal of Southeast Asian Human Rights (JSEAHR) is a joint-venture of the Indonesian Consortium for Human Rights Lecturers (SEPAHAM Indonesia) and The Centre for Human Rights, Multiculturalism and Migration (CHRM2) at the University of Jember.

The purpose of this journal is to provide a platform for the publication of the academic works which pertain to empirical, multi-disciplinary, and doctrinal approaches to explore historical and recent conditions of human rights in Southeast Asia.

Volume 2, Issue 2 showcases phenomenal papers ranging from the representation of the LGBTQ community in Indonesia to the preservation of the cultural identities of indigenous communities in the Philippines to the discrimination of rape victims in Aceh, Indonesia.

Every year, from over hundreds of submissions, our editorial team selects the top manuscripts accepted for publication. In recognition of their hard work and prestige, most of the authors presented at CHRM2 and SEPAHAM's Annual International Conference on Human Rights. This year's conference included academicians, practitioners, and policymakers from around the world, including participants from Thailand, the Philippines, Vietnam, Pakistan, Taiwan, and Australia.

New editions of the journal are published every June and December. All articles published by JSEAHR are made available online in an open access format and can be downloaded free of charge by all interested parties and individuals.

In conclusion, I would like to thank The National Commission on Human Rights of Indonesia (KOMNAS HAM) for their support in producing this volume, for their input has been vital for this publication.

Sincerely,

Dr. Al Khanif
